

Mental Health Questions and Answers (100)

1. What is mental health?

Answer: Mental health is a person's emotional, psychological, and social well-being.

2. Why is mental health important?

Answer: It affects how people think, feel, and behave.

3. What is depression?

Answer: Depression is a mental disorder causing persistent sadness and loss of interest.

4. What is anxiety?

Answer: Anxiety is excessive fear, worry, or nervousness.

5. What is stress?

Answer: Stress is the body's response to pressure or challenges.

6. What is emotional well-being?

Answer: The ability to manage emotions positively.

7. What are common mental illnesses?

Answer: Depression, anxiety, bipolar disorder, schizophrenia, and PTSD.

8. What is PTSD?

Answer: Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder caused by traumatic experiences.

9. What is bipolar disorder?

Answer: A disorder causing extreme mood swings.

10. What is schizophrenia?

Answer: A serious mental illness affecting thinking and perception.

11. What are symptoms of depression?

Answer: Sadness, fatigue, poor concentration, hopelessness, and sleep problems.

12. What are symptoms of anxiety?

Answer: Nervousness, rapid heartbeat, sweating, and excessive worry.

13. What causes depression?

Answer: Genetics, brain chemistry, stress, trauma, and life events.

14. Can depression be treated?

Answer: Yes, with therapy, medication, and lifestyle changes.

15. What is psychotherapy?

Answer: Talking therapy provided by mental health professionals.

16. What is CBT?

Answer: Cognitive Behavioral Therapy helps change negative thoughts.

17. What is a psychiatrist?

Answer: A medical doctor specializing in mental illness.

18. What is a psychologist?

Answer: A professional who studies behavior and provides therapy.

19. What is mental wellness?

Answer: Maintaining emotional and psychological health.

20. What is suicide prevention?

Answer: Actions taken to reduce suicide risk.

21. What is self-care?

Answer: Activities that improve physical and mental health.

22. Why is sleep important?

Answer: It improves brain function and emotional balance.

23. How does exercise help mental health?

Answer: It reduces stress and improves mood.

24. How does diet affect mental health?

Answer: Healthy food supports brain function.

25. What is burnout?

Answer: Physical and emotional exhaustion caused by prolonged stress.

26. What is social support?

Answer: Help received from family, friends, and community.

27. What is resilience?

Answer: The ability to recover from difficulties.

28. What is emotional intelligence?

Answer: Understanding and managing emotions.

29. What is mindfulness?

Answer: Paying attention to the present moment.

30. What is meditation?

Answer: A practice that relaxes the mind.

31. What is stigma?

Answer: Negative attitudes toward mental illness.

32. Why should stigma be reduced?

Answer: It encourages people to seek help.

33. What is mental health awareness?

Answer: Educating people about mental well-being.

34. Who is at risk of depression?

Answer: Anyone, regardless of age or gender.

35. Are university students at risk?

Answer: Yes, due to academic and personal pressures.

36. What is academic stress?

Answer: Stress caused by educational demands.

37. What is work-related stress?

Answer: Stress caused by job responsibilities.

38. Can loneliness affect mental health?

Answer: Yes, it increases depression and anxiety.

39. What is social isolation?

Answer: Lack of social interaction.

40. What is emotional support?

Answer: Care and encouragement from others.

41. What is mental health screening?

Answer: Early assessment for mental disorders.

42. What is PHQ-9?

Answer: A nine-question depression screening tool.

43. What is DASS-21?

Answer: A questionnaire measuring depression, anxiety, and stress.

44. What is GAD-7?

Answer: A seven-question anxiety assessment.

45. Why are screening tools important?

Answer: They help detect mental health problems early.

46. What is AI in mental health?

Answer: Artificial Intelligence used to support mental healthcare.

47. Can AI diagnose depression?

Answer: No, it supports professionals but cannot replace them.

48. What is machine learning?

Answer: AI that learns patterns from data.

49. What is deep learning?

Answer: Advanced machine learning using neural networks.

50. What is Natural Language Processing?

Answer: AI that understands human language.

51. What is a chatbot?

Answer: Software that communicates with users.

52. How can chatbots help mental health?

Answer: They provide information and support.

53. What are AI limitations?

Answer: AI may make mistakes and lacks human emotions.

54. What is AI bias?

Answer: Unfair decisions due to biased data.

55. What is data privacy?

Answer: Protecting personal information.

56. Why is privacy important?

Answer: Mental health information is sensitive.

57. What is confidentiality?

Answer: Keeping personal information private.

58. What is informed consent?

Answer: Permission before collecting data.

59. What is ethical AI?

Answer: AI developed responsibly and fairly.

60. What is fairness in AI?

Answer: Equal treatment for all users.

61. What is transparency?

Answer: Explaining how AI makes decisions.

62. What is accountability?

Answer: Responsibility for AI decisions.

63. What is explainable AI?

Answer: AI whose decisions can be understood.

64. What is mental health literacy?

Answer: Knowledge about mental health.

65. What is emotional regulation?

Answer: Managing emotions effectively.

66. What is coping?

Answer: Managing stress and challenges.

67. What is positive psychology?

Answer: Studying strengths and happiness.

68. What is happiness?

Answer: A state of well-being and satisfaction.

69. What is quality of life?

Answer: Overall physical, mental, and social well-being.

70. What is substance abuse?

Answer: Harmful use of drugs or alcohol.

71. Can substance abuse affect mental health?

Answer: Yes, significantly.

72. What is panic disorder?

Answer: Repeated panic attacks.

73. What is OCD?

Answer: Obsessive-Compulsive Disorder involving unwanted thoughts and repetitive behaviors.

74. What is ADHD?

Answer: Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder affecting attention and behavior.

75. What is autism?

Answer: A developmental condition affecting communication and behavior.

76. What is eating disorder?

Answer: Unhealthy eating behaviors affecting health.

77. What is insomnia?

Answer: Difficulty sleeping.

78. Can poor sleep cause depression?

Answer: Yes, it can increase the risk.

79. Can exercise reduce anxiety?

Answer: Yes.

80. Can meditation reduce stress?

Answer: Yes.

81. What is emotional trauma?

Answer: Psychological injury after distressing events.

82. What is grief?

Answer: Emotional response to loss.

83. What is counseling?

Answer: Professional guidance for personal problems.

84. When should someone seek help?

Answer: When symptoms affect daily life.

85. What is crisis intervention?

Answer: Immediate support during emergencies.

86. What is recovery?

Answer: Improving mental health over time.

87. Can children have depression?

Answer: Yes.

88. Can older adults experience depression?

Answer: Yes.

89. Can social media affect mental health?

Answer: Yes, positively and negatively.

90. What is digital mental health?

Answer: Technology-based mental health services.

91. What is teletherapy?

Answer: Therapy provided online.

92. What is mental health promotion?

Answer: Activities that improve mental well-being.

93. What is prevention?

Answer: Reducing the risk of mental illness.

94. What is early intervention?

Answer: Treating problems before they become severe.

95. Why is family support important?

Answer: It improves recovery.

96. What is community support?

Answer: Help from society and organizations.

97. Can mental illness be prevented?

Answer: Some risks can be reduced through healthy habits and early support.

98. What is the biggest challenge in mental healthcare?

Answer: Stigma and lack of access to treatment.

99. What is the goal of mental healthcare?

Answer: To improve quality of life and well-being.

100. Why is mental health important for everyone?

Answer: Good mental health helps people live healthy, productive, and meaningful lives.